

Randolph Newman Cultural Enrichment Endowment 2023-2024 Grant Information & Guidelines

---

Who can apply?

Any SRJC department, program or campus group willing to sponsor and carry out a cultural event or cultural enrichment activity can apply for a grant. Activities covered must benefit students and the community on either the Santa Rosa or Petaluma campus, within Sonoma County.

How much funding is available?

For activities planned for 2023-2024, the endowment will provide a total of $5,000 in grants. Applications with requests in the amount of $1,000 to $5,000 will be accepted.

How do I/we apply?

- 1) Fill out the application form and attach supporting information.
- 2) Fill out the attached budget form.
- 3) Obtain the signatures of a department chair or administrator who supports the project and is willing to oversee the distribution of funds, and a facilities administrator for the venue you will be using.
- 4) Submit completed application to J Mullineaux, Executive Director of the SRJC Foundation (jmullineaux@santarosa.edu; 707-527-4797).

Submission deadline is *Tuesday, February 28, 2023 by 5 P.M.

NOTE: Late or incomplete applications will not be considered for review.

Grant awards will be announced mid-March 2023.

What is the time frame for application and grant awards?

Grant applications must be for projects being planned for Fall 2023, Spring 2024 or Summer 2024.

What are the criteria for awarding the grant?

- The proposal must be for a free or ticketed cultural event or cultural enrichment activity on one of the SRJC campus sites (Events or activities could include such things as a performance, an exhibition, a guest speaker, a reading/recital, a guest artist or artist-in-residence, a workshop, or a series).
- The proposal must benefit SRJC students.
- The proposal must include a component open to community participation (community participation could include such things as a public lecture, gallery talk, reception, workshop, or performance.)
- The activity or event must present an opportunity to the college that otherwise might not be available.
- The activity may involve partnerships or cooperation with other segments of the community.

Please note: Since these activities will take place at one of the SRJC campus sites, any COVID protocols that may be in place at the time of the event must be followed by the event organizers. Event organizers may want to consider an on-line option in the case that is the only alternative at the time.
